A District of the United States Tennis Association, USTA Colorado is the governing body of tennis in our state. USTA Colorado's mission is to promote and develop the growth of tennis in Colorado. We do this in a number of ways.

We provide grants to organizations that want to introduce tennis to their communities and we offer scholarships to junior players who seek to take their game to the next level. We coordinate adult league play for more than 30,000 players across the state, and offer programs for junior players of all ages and abilities. Our sanctioned tournament schedule offers more than 160 events this year, including several opportunities for wheelchair athletes.

We are in the parks. We are in recreation centers and in private clubs. We are in schools helping physical education teachers introduce our kids to a game that they can play for a lifetime, keeping them fit and healthy. We believe that fundamental tennis principles like sportsmanship, hard work and personal responsibility translate into every area of life. Through tennis we are helping people realize their potential both on and off the court.

We are more than 22,000 members strong, but our scope is not confined to those players alone. We represent the nearly 500,000 tennis players in our state, providing information and opportunities to play for each and every one of them. We reach out to all players, including those of diverse cultural backgrounds, mentally and physically challenged athletes, and under-served communities. Diversity and Inclusion is a strategic priority for USTA Colorado and one of our core values. Diversity allows us to touch all of Colorado and Inclusion allows all of Colorado to touch us.

We invite you to find out more about the lifetime sport of tennis. We will help you find a court, find a program, find a league or find a team. We will help you put the FUN back in FITNESS. So whether you want to learn to play tennis, get back into the sport, or just find more opportunities to play the game, we're here to help.

GETTING STARTED

If you're new to tennis, it can seem like there's a lot to learn. Getting beyond the fundamentals like swinging low-to-high and wearing the right footwear on the court might be a challenge, but when you're ready to explore the next frontier, you'll find that there's a whole world of tennis opportunities just waiting for you.

That's where the 2011 BIG BOOK OF COLORADO TENNIS can help. We've packed this year's Big Book with information about leagues and tournaments for players young and old. If you've perused a Big Book in the past, you'll see some familiar features, like our League Finder and Tournament section.

To these we've also added the 2011 Parent Guide—an ideal resource for parents with tennis-playing kids or for parents considering tennis as an option for their children. If your child is ready to explore tennis outside of the practice court, you'll find an array of choices that cater to his or her age, ability and schedule.

If you've never played league tennis, or if you've sat on the sidelines for a few years, we hope you'll make 2011 the year you get in the game. The Adult Leagues pages will keep you up to speed on the latest additions to the Colorado League Tennis menu, as well as a host of other important information on scheduling, rules and regulations changes, and other vital news from the adult league world.

We've also added some important information to our 2011 Tournament Guide, including new information about rankings and how to prepare for and get the most out of your tournament experience.

Tennis is an ideal sport for people of all ages looking to improve their fitness, find new friends, or just add a bit of fun to their lives. It's social, competitive, and way more fun than a treadmill. We hope to see you on the courts this year.

Your Perfect Match

Keep the advantage on your side of the net with world-class instructors, year-round play and programs for all levels. Choose from affordable membership options and amenities that hit the sweet spot.

Colorado Academy Summer Programs is situated on 94 acres of beautiful Colorado countryside in southwest Denver.

Parents want to do what is best for their children.

They want to provide meaningful and positive experiences that will be enjoyable and lead to the positive development of the child.

Tennis is a sport that a child can learn at a young age and enjoy with friends and family for a lifetime.

This guide will provide you with the right tools to get your child started correctly, keeping the focus on the fun, active and lifelong benefits of tennis.

KIDS & TENNIS: A NATURAL FIT

Tennis is one of the most popular sports in the United States and the second most-played sport worldwide. Free or low-cost courts are available in nearly every community at schools and parks, and organized programs for kids are common throughout the country. All a child needs to get started is a racquet and some tennis balls. The cost of an introductory racquet and balls is extremely reasonable, making the starting expense of playing tennis among the lowest of any sport.

Research shows that tennis is also one of the best and most enjoyable ways to become healthy and fit. The very nature of the game of serving, returning and rallying makes tennis an active sport with plenty of movement, starts, stops and direction changes.

Tennis is a great cardiovascular activity, and the movements used on the court develop balance, agility and coordination.

Mental focus is sharpened because decision-making and concentration is necessary every time a ball is hit. It is also one of the safest of all sports and has a very low rate of injury compared to other youth sports.

Tennis provides a place for youngsters to make new acquaintances and strengthen existing relationships with family and friends. It teaches the importance of physical, emotional and mental fitness; of making good choices; and developing good character.

GOALS

It is important to keep participation in youth sports in perspective and to understand why kids play. Many times adults have grand ideas of a professional career or even a college scholarship. While these could be long-term goals for those players who eventually specialize in a sport, children play for different reasons. They want to be active, be with friends, develop skills and, most importantly, have fun.

As parents, one of the most important things you can do is to help your children discover their interests and provide experiences that develop a love of the game. For new players it is not about winning, rankings and trophies, but playing, being with their friends, making new friends, being active and developing their skills. It might be participating on a team and having pizza after a match or practice. It might be going to a local college match or taking a trip with mom and dad to a professional tournament.

When 28,000 boys and girls were asked in a study about why they played sports, the top answer was "fun" followed by "to do something I am good at" and "to improve my skills."

"Winning" did not even make the Top 10!

To be a great player there must be an internal commitment required to do the necessary work to improve skills and conditioning. However, if the love of tennis does not burn deep inside your child first, burnout and dissatisfaction will probably accompany the inevitable plateaus on the quest for improvement and long-time participation.

DEVELOPING A LOVE OF THE GAME

Parents of players of all ages must keep both long- and short-term goals in perspective. The important short-term goal of fun and activity must be emphasized above all.

If tennis is not fun, or if there is little activity, your child is unlikely to develop a love of the game and will instead find another activity that is more compelling.

Long-term goals include the enjoyment of an activity they can play for a lifetime. It is a game kids can play with friends and family. Tennis is a fantastic way to spend quality time as a family.

Be aware of putting pressure on children for results, but make sure you recognize and acknowledge effort. In the US, 70 percent of kids quit organized sport by the age of 13, and the top three reasons given by kids are:

1. It's not fun anymore
2. Parental pressure to perform
3. Unmet coaching expectations

Parents must let kids be kids and let them play and discover. Let them have fun. Provide opportunities for them to be with friends. Permit them to play spontaneously, to experiment and to risk. Allow them to challenge each other to learn new skills and try new shots. Make tennis that haven where they can get away from their over-structured lives and learn to move, play and create on the tennis court.

Research indicates that kids develop personal motivation and a love of the game when they are given ample opportunity to participate in unstructured free play. Taking charge of their playing environment and recognizing for themselves what effort is needed to excel is the basis for personal drive and motivation.

COMPETITION

At some time children will be on the court competing against another player or doubles team. Competition at the correct time will provide a focus to the game, bring an awareness of strengths and weaknesses, sharpen skills and tactics, and provide valuable opportunities for your child to make decisions in real time. But competition too early can lead to discouragement, and the development of skills and tactics could be compromised if kids revert to bad habits for short-term success.

Parents should seek out events that provide young players ample opportunities to play with and against a large number of children instead of events that eliminate kids. These events for young children should last more than a half-day. Round robin events where everyone has a chance to play every player are good because nobody is eliminated and everyone plays the same amount. Compass draw events allow kids to move into the best competitive brackets and continue playing, win or lose.

Young and inexperienced players should avoid single-elimination tournaments where there is one winner and many losers. Competing in these events with poor results is very discouraging for young players. It is never fun to play and lose and have your name at the bottom of the ranking chart.

PLAY OPPORTUNITIES

There is a starting point for every child who is introduced to tennis. The first experience might be on a playground with friends, or it may be in the driveway with a parent or family member. Really, it could be in any number of settings—at school during physical education class, during recess, or in a before- or after-school program. Many youth program providers also offer tennis, generally in after-school or summer programs, and introductory tennis classes are common in most communities in Colorado and are typically offered by parks, camps or clubs.

However it happens, once your child has that first experience and develops a perceived level of ability—the thought that, “Hey, I can do this”—it is important to identify opportunities for your child to participate. Here are several possibilities that are all great for kids.

Spontaneous Play

An opportunity often overlooked in our highly scheduled society is spontaneous play. This is where kids can learn and play either by themselves or with other kids. It could be hitting balls against a wall or garage door, or by setting up modified courts that fit into smaller or more restricted spaces.

Kids in other youth sports shoot baskets, kick or throw balls in the backyard or skateboard down the sidewalk and off the curb. Playing tennis with foam balls on a modified court can provide endless hours of activity and fun. It is interesting to note that champions in many other sports spent most of their developmental years learning from others and playing spontaneously.

Previously this was difficult because kids only had options of playing on the same-sized court and with the same ball that the pros use. The QuickStart Tennis Play format uses equipment that is scaled to the size of the child. Racquets are shorter, lighter and have smaller handles. Balls are softer, lighter, bounce lower and move slower through the air. Courts are smaller and the net is lower. This makes it possible for kids to learn by playing rather than having to learn all the strokes before they even play the game.

Driveway Tennis

Smaller courts can be set up on driveways, parking lots, playgrounds, activity rooms, gymnasiums and even on tennis courts using sidewalk chalk for lines and a rope or “caution tape” as a net. Several manufacturers make pop-up nets that are portable and can easily be set up and disassembled.

Wall Tennis

Hitting balls against a wall or garage door has a rich tradition in our sport. Many champions have grooved their strokes by hitting balls against a wall. With the balls modified so they are lighter, slower and lower bouncing (red, orange and green balls), hitting against a wall is easier, safer and allows a child to take a full swing at the ball and still have time to recover and prepare for the next shot.

Supervised Play

Parents can also encourage their kids to participate in supervised play. Supervised play can be offered anywhere in which courts are made available for kids to use under the direction of an adult. The role of the adult is to serve as the “gatekeeper” and provide a safe area in which everyone has an opportunity to play. Similar to an “open gym” for basketball or an “open pool” for swimming, these opportunities are ideal for schools, youth centers and neighborhoods where kids can meet up and enjoy the camaraderie of playing with one another.

Structured Play

Tennis is a great individual sport to learn. Children of all sizes and shapes can learn to play the game successfully and develop at their own pace.

As children develop an interest in tennis, finding an organized program is a great way to improve their skills and provide further development through lessons, clinics and additional play opportunities. Much depends on the commitment to practice and play, but that can be determined with the help and guidance of the parent. There are individual-competition opportunities across the state starting with novice-level events that your child can enjoy. Starting as a child is a lifelong journey. Tennis can be played at any age in almost every country in the world.

Team Play

Tennis is a great team sport. Each year more and more kids are learning and competing as part of a team. They enjoy the social aspects of a team environment, the camaraderie of teammates and the support and encouragement of a coach. Many middle schools and most high schools offer tennis teams that allow kids to be with their friends, represent their school and compete as a team. Junior Team Tennis programs provide kids the opportunity to learn and compete on a team and be with their friends. Matches and practices are team-based and are fun because kids have the support of teammates and coaches.

Parents can play a valuable role and be involved at many levels. Like other sports, parents can carpool to get kids to practices and matches, provide drinks and refreshments, serve as scorekeepers during matches, take kids to professional, college or even high school matches, and organize an end-of-the-season pizza party. These are great ways to spend time with your children while also providing them with valuable experiences and lifelong memories.

Some parents might want to coach or assist on-court. For them, USTA Colorado provides workshops—both the standard Recreational Coaches Workshop and workshops designed specifically for teaching the QuickStart Tennis play format—designed for new coaches to teach and coach teams of young players.

FINDING THE RIGHT PROGRAM FOR KIDS 10 AND UNDER

- 1 Look for a program that uses the QuickStart Tennis play format in its instruction
- 2 Check to see if the program is using courts and equipment that is scaled down to the size and ability of the child.
- 3 Ask if the instructors have received special training in working with young children.
- 4 Finally, make sure the program includes more than just lessons. Kids have fun when they actually play, so the program should have competitive opportunities that are non-elimination and allow a child plenty of opportunities to play with and against a large number of players.

THE PARENT'S ROLE

Learning to play and enjoy the sport of tennis is one of the greatest gifts you can give your child. Tennis is almost unmatched in the physical activity it provides kids and players of all ages. As children go through the process of becoming a player, they will have numerous experiences that will serve as life lessons and create teachable moments. Children will have different levels of success so make sure to be positive, patient and encouraging, and to reward their efforts. Your most important job is to make the game fun for both you and your child. They will model your behavior so smile, have fun, be encouraging and positive in tone and body language.

Parents play a very important role in selecting a program and a coach. Once those decisions have been made, the parent should concentrate on being a supportive and encouraging role model and leave the teaching to the coaches. Let them be responsible for teaching the physical and mental skills necessary for winning.

Parents should concentrate on developing those life skills that develop character—such as respect, effort, self-control, dedication, overcoming mistakes and adapting to the conditions—and will carry over into what your child becomes as an adult.

It has been said that sport does not build character, it reveals it. Tennis provides many opportunities for kids to learn and develop character by playing by the rules, making their own line calls, respecting officials and opponents, learning to win humbly and lose graciously. These are all teachable moments, and parents should take these opportunities to teach character at the highest standard.

Finally, a positive experience of learning, playing and competing, and the enjoyment your child will have on the tennis court, driveway or hitting wall will be one of the great memories your child will take into adulthood. Tennis is a great gift—and one that every parent can provide to his or her child.

* Red - Official rule in 2011
 ** Orange and Green - Official rule effective 2012

Clubs, parks, schools and HOAs around the state have already begun preparing for the 2012 rule change. In an effort to assist facilities looking to stripe 36'- and 60'-lines and/or building permanent courts, the USTA is offering a 50/50 grant up to $4,000.

Info at USTA.com/technical.

SIZE MATTERS

In a decision that will fundamentally change the future landscape of tennis in the US, the USTA has required that beginning in 2012, all 10 & Under tennis tournaments and leagues must incorporate the QuickStart Tennis format, using age-appropriate balls and racquets, smaller courts and lower nets. Even the scoring will change for the youngest competitors.

The new rules are structured for kids to learn, rally and play quickly, and in a way that is both enjoyable and rewarding. Tailoring equipment and courts so they are sized appropriately for kids makes the game more accessible—and more fun—by allowing kids to get involved right from the start.

EVEN AFTER 30 YEARS, COLORADO ADULT LEAGUE TENNIS STILL EXPERIENCING GROWING PAINS.

Offering one of the nation's largest recreational tennis menus, the USTA Colorado Adult League Tennis Series is a thirty-year success story.

The four hallmarks of league tennis have helped fuel the continued popularity of the program for three decades: competition, fun, fitness/health and social. Add to these the fact that players can continue to enjoy all of them well into their golden years and you've got a recipe for long-term growth.

Since their inception in 1980, adult leagues have grown almost every year. In 2010, more than 30,000 Colorado players competed in the adult league series, an 8% increase over the previous year, and one of the largest increases ever recorded. Leading the way in this tremendous growth were USTA Adult, USTA Senior, USTA Super Senior and CTA Twilight leagues.

To put the local league tennis series into perspective, consider this: the Denver metro area ranks as the second largest in the nation behind tennis hotbed Atlanta. With more than 23,000 league players, Denver is more than double the size of the third largest area (which is also located in the Southern Section). Colorado's 30,000+ league players ranks ahead of the entire Southern California section!

Equally impressive is the fact that over the three days of the USTA Adult District Championships, nearly 1,200 matches were played. Again, to add perspective, only 800 matches were contested during the 2010 US Open, and that event lasted two full weeks.

The sheer size and scope of the Adult League Series is impressive, and continued growth is a benefit to both players and facilities. But due to infrastructure limitations, parks and clubs are being forced to get creative with their league scheduling. As we move a bit further into the 2010s, USTA Colorado will be exploring different ways to ensure a quality experience for all league players.

In addition to format changes, USTA Colorado is actively working in communities across the state to increase and enhance our tennis infrastructure, not only to accommodate current growth, but to encourage future growth as well.

FLIGHT PLAYOFFS:

ADULT/TWILIGHT MOVE TO FLIGHT PLAYOFFS

Our goal with all of USTA Colorado's league playoffs—conducted at no additional cost/fee for those who advance—is to provide the best experience possible and to ensure that we run a quality Championship. Since there is not sufficient indoor court space available primarily for USTA Adult or CTA Twilight, the decision has been made to make modifications that will allow us to continue to provide an outstanding experience for all players involved even if we experience inclement weather.

So in an effort to "rain-proof" our two largest playoff events, USTA Adult and CTA Twilight leagues will feature a flight playoff beginning the week after the last regular season match. The flight playoff will determine which teams advance to round robin play at each league's Colorado District Championships. This will happen whenever there is more than one flight at a specified NTRP level within a geographic area. For example, if there are two flights of 4.0 women's teams in Colorado Springs, the winning team from each flight will play each other for the single spot into Districts. If there are 20 flights of 4.0 women in Denver, the winning teams will be paired up in single elimination competition, with the 10 winning teams advancing to Districts.

The rationale for this change is the fact that these two events have grown to the point that we are not able to secure enough indoor courts to conduct them, should there be delays due to inclement weather.

Organizers and players were very fortunate in 2010 to have good weather. With more than 108 courts used for the first two days—including a big chunk of the metro area's indoor courts—any bad weather would have created enormous and insurmountable problems for the schedulers.

We anticipate that this format change will help us manage any weather problems that we face during the Championships, and allow us to continue to provide the best possible playoff experience to our league players.

CHANGES TO MATCH FORMAT

DENVER METRO ONLY

Players on each court will still have the ability to play the third set out in its entirety for 2011; however, if anyone on the court would prefer to play a 10-point match tiebreak in lieu of the third set, it is required to be played. It is now required for all players on the court to agree to play an entire third set. This rule is in effect for all leagues in Denver-Metro. Outlying areas will abide by the match format that is defined within their areas according to the District League Regulations. In 2012, the format for all leagues in Denver-Metro will be changed to a required tiebreak in lieu of the third set during the regular season.

New Time Slots available for Adult/Twilight nights

In 2012, an additional time slot will be added to the USTA Adult and CTA Twilight schedule to help alleviate court congestion at facilities at max capacity. The new 4pm slot will be offered in addition to the traditional 6pm time slot. Facilities will have the option to offer this to league players at their discretion in 2012.

NEED SCORES & STATS? THERE'S AN APP FOR THAT

Just in time for your spring and summer league seasons, the USTA has launched a new league iPhone app that gets you in the game like never before. Need to check stats, standings, schedules and scores while on the go? It allows you to track, measure and improve your team's league experience at your convenience—with everything you need right at your fingertips.

Now you can get even more out of your USTA League experience by simplifying and maximizing the way you communicate with teammates and organize matches. Features of the new application include the ability to:

- View league schedules
- Track rosters and records
- Research statistics and standings
- Find an NTRP rating
- Report a score from any league match

Playing USTA League just got a whole lot easier and even more fun. Download the USTA League app for your iPad, iPhone, iPod Touch devices at the iTunes store and get USTA League information anywhere at anytime.

TENNISLINK FACE-LIFT

TennisLink will have a new web interface and the roll-out has been tentatively scheduled for late February 2011. All players and captains will now be able to login and manage their membership and teams in a more effective manner. Some of the new features include easier navigation, easier access to membership information, and new ways to register teams and keep track of standings.

NEW LEAGUE OPPORTUNITIES—2011

◀ Trio adds another X-chromosome

Attention all women! Due to popular demand from our female players, the Trio league will offer a women's division in 2011. For all of you out there who are interested in giving your team a competitive edge for the USTA Adult league, sign up for Trio by March 18 and get an early start on the competition. The Trio League is the only league that has the same format as Twilight (2 singles and 1 doubles) and is considered by many league men to be a great pre-season tune-up, consisting of 3-5 weeks of match play with no playoff advancement.

More than Super, these seniors are Silver! ▶

To all of our 70+ league players, you spoke, we listened! Based on the overwhelming feedback we received this year, the Adult League Programs Committee has decided to add the CTA Silver Senior league, a combo league (NTRP combos 6.0/7.0/8.0/9.0) consisting of 3 doubles positions. Matches will be played Thursdays at 10am. As in other leagues, doubles partners must have a published rating within 1.0 of each other.

For more information on our new league offerings, email Kailey Jonas at kailey@coloradotennis.com or call 303/695-4116 x206.

FINDING THE RIGHT LEAGUE

The USTA Colorado Adult League Series provides organized and structured team matches for more than 30,000 men and women throughout the state. We coordinate 12 separate leagues for players of all ages and abilities. Teams are formed according to NTRP rating (for complete description of National Tennis Rating Program, please visit COLORADOTENNIS.com) so players are assured of competing against opponents of comparable ability, which keeps the game lively and the atmosphere social. And as part of a team, you've got a built in support entourage that few tour pros can match. Whether you're a beginner or an experienced netter, we've got a team for players like you.

Each of our leagues offers something unique, so we've created the easy to use guide on page. 30. Simply match your NTRP level with your age to locate all the league opportunities we have for you. You can also find out which day of the week each division plays, get registration deadlines, playoff dates and other important information, just check the centerfold reference guide on pages 32-33. ## ACT YOUR AGE

In order to participate in USTA Colorado's Adult League Tennis Series, players must turn 18 years old by 12/31/2011. USTA Colorado also offers several senior leagues for those who want to "act their age." Players 50+ (or turning 50 by 12/31/2011) are invited to participate in the USTA Senior League, 55+ in the recreational Senior Breakfast League, 60+ (or turning 60 by 12/31/2011) in the USTA Super Senior League, and 70+ (or turning 70 by 12/31/2011) in the Silver Seniors League.

FORMATS

Each adult league offers opportunities for players to compete in singles (s), doubles (d), or both (sd). USTA Colorado offers four Combo Doubles leagues: USTA Mixed, USTA Super Senior, CTA Silver Senior and ITA Fall Mixed. Levels are determined by combining the partners' NTRP rating. In each of these leagues, the rating spread between partners cannot be greater than 1.0 level (i.e., in a 7.5 level, a 3.0 cannot play with a 4.5).

THE END OF THE ROAD

Each of USTA Colorado's adult leagues (except Trio and Senior Breakfast League) culminates in a season-ending championship. But certain leagues offer advancement to Sectional and/or National Championships. The easiest way to determine the end point is to look at the prefix of each league: USTA Leagues culminate in a National Championship; ITA Leagues finish up at a Sectional Championship; and CTA leagues end the season at a District (State) Championship. World Team Tennis competes in a series of national qualifiers rather than a strict league season, and the Senior Breakfast League offers three seasonal sessions: Spring, Summer and Fall/Winter.

The USTA has issued the following noteworthy changes for 2011. For a complete list of all the updated rules, regulations and codes, please pick up the 2011 FRIEND AT COURT.

CHANGING OUT CALL TO GOOD

Code 12 has changed to reflect that a player who changes his "out" call to "good" loses the point. No let will be played in this situation.

CELL PHONE UPDATE

USTA Comment 26.3 explains the penalties for a ringing cell phone:

1. Ringing during a point, opponent may stop play and claim point as a deliberate hindrance. Player must turn off the phone.
2. Ringing between points, is treated as a Time Violation (could be a Warning or a Point Penalty). Player must turn off the phone.
3. If the phone vibrates, no penalty. Player must turn off the phone unless Referee has approved vibrating phone (Doctor on call for example).

FINDING THE RIGHT EVENT:

Many factors can help determine the right event for you or your child. Age, skill level, fitness and length of tournament can all be deciding factors in determining which tournaments you should enter.

USTA Colorado endorses/sanctions events that meet certain USTA criteria for quality and consistency. Only Sanctioned Event results count toward state rankings and NTRP ratings. Non-sanctioned tournament results do not factor toward a state ranking, nor do their results factor into a player's rating. All Adult, Senior and Wheelchair Sanctioned Tournaments require a current USTA membership, as do Junior Championship and Satellite events. Junior Novice and non-Sanctioned events do not require a USTA membership. Selected tournaments have been Designated so as to guarantee quality ranking information by forcing more head-to-head competition among Colorado's top players in a particular division. For a complete listing of 2011 Designated Tournaments, please see page 47.

Here's some basic information about the types of events Colorado has to offer:

Junior Tournaments:

Junior tournaments are designed to offer a wide variety of formats and accommodate players of virtually any age and skill level. Many events offer guaranteed matches—round robins, compass draws, consolation brackets—to ensure that players are getting the most from their experience.

Beginning in 2012, all USTA tournaments featuring 10 and under divisions will utilize the QuickStart format. For more information on how the rules have changed for 10 and under players, please visit 10ANDUNDERTENNIS.com.

Novice:

If your youngster is just learning the game, s/he would be right at home at a Novice tournament. Novice events offer learning players the opportunity to experience tournament play and competition in a supportive and non-threatening environment.

Novice players have no previous competitive experience in tournament play (above the novice level), and have typically played tennis for two years or less. Because these events are non-sanctioned, a USTA membership is not required and results do not count towards rankings.

This year, nearly two dozen junior novice tournaments are being offered, nearly half of which will be offering the QuickStart Tennis format for 10 and under divisions.

Satellite:

Intermediate-level players with some experience will be right at home in satellite tournaments. These events offer junior players the opportunity to experience the next level of competitive play. More than 40 satellite events are being offered in 2011.

Acting as a bridge between Novice and Championship-level events, Satellite events cater to players with one to three years of beginning competitive experience (i.e., novice tournaments, CARA, novice or intermediate Junior Team Tennis play). Once a player has gained confidence in novice tournaments, or has won a total of three different novice events in any combination of singles, doubles, or mixed, that player can reasonably compete at the Satellite level.

A player is ineligible for the Satellite level play if:

1. Player attained a National or Sectional (Intermountain region) ranking the previous year;
2. Player reached:
  - a) the quarterfinals of a Designated Championship tournament (in-district), or
  - b) the semifinals of any sanctioned Championship tournament event (in-district).

A Satellite Ineligibility List will be published annually based on the prior year's results. The Seeding & Ranking Committee periodically may determine additional players to be ineligible for Satellite level play based on recent Championship or Satellite tournament results. Players are strongly encouraged to play within their age group in the Championship level rather than playing up an age group in the Satellite level. The Seeding and Ranking Committee will consider written appeals from players for the Satellite ineligible list until April 12, 2011.

Junior Championship:

The Championship level is designed for the junior player who is seeking the highest level of junior competition in Colorado. Satellite players who are seeking more advanced tournament play may also compete at this level. Players listed on the 2011 Satellite Ineligible List—published on COLORADOTENNIS.com in March 2011—are required to play at this level. Juniors seeking to compete at the Sectional and National levels are encouraged to compete in Championship-level events. There are nearly 50 championship-level tournaments offered in 2011.

Adult Tournaments:

Adult tournament participation has been steadily climbing for the past half-dozen years, as more and more players are discovering the competitive and social fun of tournament tennis. There are several types of events—NTRP, Senior/Family and Championship.

NTRP/Championship:

Designed to pit players of compatible skill against one another. NTRP levels range from 2.5 to 5.0 Note: players rated above 5.0 are required to play in the Open division; any junior player 18 & under MUST play in the Open division, unless the player turns 19 by December 31, 2011. They are then eligible to compete in an NTRP event, but must contact the Tournament Director for entry.

You may play at or above your specific NTRP level, but not below your rating. If you don't have a current rating, you may self-rate and play in that division. For information on NTRP ratings, see COLORADOTENNIS.com.

Senior/Family Events:

Also called age division events, Senior events pit players 30 and older against similarly aged competitors. In Family events, the only requirement is that the partners be related (there are no upper or lower age limits). But be aware: there are no skill parameters in Senior or Family events. A player in the draw may be an expert, a novice, or anywhere in between. Players must be of division age by December 31, 2011, and may not play in an older division.

REGISTERING FOR A TOURNAMENT

Unless otherwise noted, all Colorado sanctioned events utilize TennisLink, the USTA's online registration system. To register, visit COLORADOTENNIS.com and click Tournaments under the Helpful Links drop-down menu. Use the TennisLink number provided in this publication for easy reference.

IT'S TIME TO PLAY

Picking the events you want is very similar to picking out products at the store. You probably have four or five similar products to choose from. Do you rely on price, quality or some other factor? Maybe you're willing to pay more for a product that lasts longer than others you've tried. Essentially, try looking for tournaments that will provide you with the best value for your dollar.

But just as important to consider is your present state of fitness—you may want to enter an event that offers less match play if you are "getting your feet wet" for the first time.

We hope you have found this guide useful. If you have any questions or you need additional information, please contact USTA Colorado.

RANKINGS REQUIREMENTS

In Colorado, all Senior, NTRP, Championship, Family events, and Junior Satellite tournaments utilize a Points Per Round (PPR) system to determine Colorado rankings. If you're unfamiliar with PPR, it is a very simple process. Players earn points for each win, plus earn bonus points for wins over "Top 20" players. Sanctioned events are broken down to Designated/Level 1 and non-Designated/Level 2 tournaments (see chart on page 41). Level 1 tournaments carry more points than Level 2 events.

The USTA Colorado Ranking Review Committee reserves the right to modify the ranking requirements if deemed necessary or appropriate.

No changes have been made to any ranking requirements for 2011.

WITHDRAWALS, WALKOVERS, DEFAULTS & RETIREMENTS

TOURNAMENT CODE

WITHDRAWAL – A withdrawal occurs before a player plays any matches in a tournament.

WALKOVER – A walkover occurs after a player completes a match in a tournament and that player is unable to play a subsequent match due to illness, injury or personal emergency.

DEFAULT (before the first point of a match) – a default for lateness at the start of a match, failure to show up for a match, refusal to start match, and misconduct before or between matches.

DEFAULT (after the first point of a match) – a default for code violations under the PPS, lateness after a rest period or resumption of a suspended match, refusal to continue to play a match.

RETIREMENT – A retirement occurs when a player is unable to continue play during a match for reasons of injury, illness or personal emergency.

IMPACT ON RANKING OF PLAYER

The withdrawing player receives no ranking points for the tournament.

The player receives PPR and bonus points accumulated for reaching the round from which their opponent advances because of the walkover.

The player receives PPR and bonus points accumulated for the round from which they defaulted, except that players defaulted for code violations under the Point Penalty System (PPS) shall receive no points for the tournament.

The defaulting player receives PPR and bonus points accumulated for reaching the round from which they defaulted, except for players who are defaulted for code violations under the PPS shall receive no points for the tournament.

The retiring player receives points per round and bonus points accumulated for reaching the round from which they retire any bonus points that apply to the match.

IMPACT ON RANK OF OPPONENT

The player who advances because of a withdrawal shall receive PPR for advancing but no bonus points.

A player who advances because of a walkover shall receive PPR for advancing, but shall not receive any bonus points.

A player who advances because of a default before the first point in a match shall receive PPR for advancing, but shall not receive any bonus points.

A player who advances because of a default after the first point in a match shall receive PPR for advancing and any points that apply to the match.

A player who advances because of a retirement shall receive points per round for advancing and any bonus points that apply to the match.

2011 RANKING REQUIREMENTS (ALL EVENTS EXCEPT JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP)

NTRP SINGLES/DOUBLES REQUIREMENTS:

Players accumulating a minimum of 250 points during the calendar year will earn a year-end ranking. Only a player's three best results* at Colorado sanctioned events will count towards a ranking.

SENIOR (30-80)/FAMILY REQUIREMENTS:

Players accumulating a minimum of 100 points during the calendar year will earn a year-end ranking. Only a player's two best results at Colorado sanctioned events* will count towards a ranking.

ADULT CHAMPIONSHIP REQUIREMENTS:

Players accumulating a minimum of 200 points during the calendar year will earn a year-end ranking. Only a player's two best results at Colorado sanctioned events* will count towards a ranking.

JUNIOR SATELLITE REQUIREMENTS:

Players accumulating a minimum of 150 points during the calendar year will earn a year-end ranking. Only a player's three best results* at Colorado sanctioned events will count towards a ranking.

POINTS PER ROUND BREAKDOWN

SINGLE-ELIMINATION EVENT

Description	Finish	Level 1	Level 2

HOW POINTS DETERMINE YOUR RANKING/STANDING

Bonus Point Table
Standing of Player Defeated	Bonus Points
1-5	20
6-10	15
11-15	10
16-20	5

*Only a player's top X results (number depends on division) will count toward Colorado ranking/standings. If a player has more tournaments on his/her record, the ranking program automatically drops the lower scores and keeps the best results.

Rankings/standings points include PPR from the tables PLUS any Bonus Points (for singles only, see table at left) earned at the tournament. These Bonus Points are attached to the event in which they are earned. If a tournament is not among the player's best events, neither the PPR nor the bonus points for that event will count toward the player's total.

2011 RANKING REQUIREMENTS (JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP ONLY)

Players accumulating a minimum of 200 points during the calendar year will earn a year-end ranking. Only a player's five best results* at Colorado sanctioned events will count towards a ranking.

Unlike the standing lists, year-end rankings points will not count down to the lower age division.

Understanding the 2011 Colorado Tennis Sanctioned Tournament Listings

SANCTIONED LISTINGS

DATE: the dates the tournament will run. Not all events will run the entire length of the tournament, and unexpected circumstances may cause changes to the schedule. Always check online for the latest details for an event

EVENT: the official title of the tournament. If you don't have a copy of the Big Book of Colorado Tennis handy, you can always search online for the tournament title to register for an event or look up the draws

TENNISLINK: the online identification number used for registration, information, seeding and results.

These events are identified by registration numbers in BLUE. Please keep in mind that in 2007, all TennisLink events joined the Active.com network, resulting in an unrefundable processing fee of $3/event entry. For example, if a tournament charges $28 for a singles event, you will be charged $31 for that event. Please note that this is an Active.com fee, and is beyond the control of the tournament.

FEBRUARY 15-20

RANCH INDOOR OPEN

257230311 DESIGNATED

MWsdMXd 35/45/55/65/75 FRLC

Ranch Country Club, 11887 Tejon, Denver, CO 80234. 303/469-5372. $37s, $23d/ player. Entries on TennisLink or to Miikka Keronen by 2/8. Limit two events/player with MXd as a third event.

DIVISIONS: a listing of all divisions offered at the tournament.

M = Men, W = Women

s = Singles, d = doubles

MXd = Mixed Doubles or Combined Mixed

Chp = Championship

Family Doubles (may be listed in Adult or Junior listings)

Q = quadriplegic events

F/S = Father/Son, F/D = Father/Daughter

M/S = Mother/Son, M/D = Mother/Daughter

TBA = To Be Announced

FORMAT: modified formats (FRLC, etc) are listed here. For a list of different types of modified formats, please see below.

DESIGNATED: or Level 1 tournament, these events help guarantee quality ranking information by forcing head-to-head competition among Colorado's top players in a particular division. A tournament may be Designated in all, or just some divisions. See page 48 for a list of all 2011 Designated events. Designated events appear in RED.

INFORMATION: the absolute essential tournament description. Please see the tournament listing on TennisLink, as many events will list additional information that is important to players online. It is the player's responsibility to be aware of all information posted by the tournament.

MODIFIED FORMATS

FMLC: First Match Losers Consolation—A draw in which the first-round losers and second round losers who advanced to that round by virtue of a bye or default enter the consolation draw.

FRLC: First Round Losers Consolation—A draw in which only the first-round losers enter the consolation draw.

MFIC: Modified Feed-In Consolation—A draw in which the main draw losers are fed back into another draw against players who lost in earlier rounds of the tournament.

ROUND ROBINS: Multiple match guarantees as players compete against all other players in their flight/bracket.

COMPASS DRAWS: Player-friendly formats guaranteeing players multiple matches, even if they lose every match. A non-elimination format that is so named because players advance in four to eight different directions depending upon when they lose their first match and when they lose their subsequent matches. How a compass draw works:

At the end of round 1: winners go east/losers go west

At the end of round 2: the east losers go north/ the west losers go south

At the end of round 3: the east losers go northeast/the north losers go northwest/the west losers go southwest/the south losers go southeast

At the end of round 4: the losers are out of the tournament (or go to a semifinal playoff)/ the winners play the finals on each draw sheet

QUICKSTART: Modified to benefit players under 10, the QuickStart format utilizes smaller courts, shorter racquets, lower nets, slower and lower-bouncing balls and kid-friendly scoring to make the game more accessible to children. For a more detailed description of the equipment, please see page 21.

COLORCODES

In an effort to help players coordinate their league and tournament obligations, we've listed junior and adult league championships in GREEN.

TOURNAMENT ICONS

These icons are used to represent special events/formats. When applicable, they will be found to the left of the TennisLink number.

PRIZE MONEY

Prize money will be offered in specified divisions, please see the tournament listing on TennisLink for more details.

WHEELCHAIR EVENTS

Tournament offers specific events for wheelchair players.

RACQUETS FOR ALL® COLLECTION SITE

Official drop-off point for Racquets For All, the equipment recycling program of the Colorado Youth Tennis Foundation. RFA sites have collection barrels where players are encouraged to donate their gently used racquets to help under-privileged kids throughout the state.

QUICKSTART FORMAT (10 & UNDER DIVISIONS)

Please see page 21 for more details.

DESIGNATED EVENTS

These selected tournaments have been Designated so as to guarantee quality ranking information by forcing more head-to-head competition among Colorado's top players in a particular division.

Bollettieri does a 180 on the rule change for 10 and Under Tennis

A conversation with Coach Nick Bollettieri

We sat down with one of the most influential people in the world of tennis—Nick Bollettieri, a legend who has transcended the sport. Nick's coaching methods have helped produce 10 No. 1 players. We wanted his take on the 10 and Under Tennis rule change and the QuickStart Tennis play format.

A WHOLE NEW BALL GAME

In the beginning, you've got to make sure kids make contact with the ball; if they aren't making contact by age 6 or 7, they're not coming back. I guarantee, that with 10 and Under Tennis using the QuickStart format, you'll grow your programs faster than ever. And I'll tell you why: your audience is starting out at age 5 to 10, you get them then and you'll have them for 10 years! Then you have three or four courts going at the same time, and it doesn't take a genius to figure out what it does for your bottom line. Plus, once you've got the kids hooked, you've got Mommy and Daddy as well—and the cash register ringing.

10 and Under Tennis using the QuickStart Tennis play format gives kids a chance to play the first time out and keeps them coming back with techniques that will serve them for the rest of their lives. Some students will get college scholarships. A few players may go on to become professionals, but it's the sport as a whole that becomes the big winner.

QUICKSTART TENNIS PLAY FORMAT

STAGE	AGE	BALL	COURT	RACQUET (Depending on the size of the player)
RED	5-8 YEARS	 RED FELT OR FOAM <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Moves slower and bounces lower than the orange ball</li> <li>• Great for home/playground</li> </ul>	36'x18' 	Up to 23"
ORANGE	9-10 YEARS	 ORANGE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Moves slower and bounces lower than the standard yellow ball</li> <li>• Great for more advanced players</li> </ul>	60'x21' SINGLES  60'x27' DOUBLES	23"-25"

COACH NICK BOLLETTIERI shares his insights on what changed his mind about 10 and Under Tennis and the QuickStart Tennis play format.

RIGHT-SIZED COURTS, RIGHT-SIZED CHALLENGES

We start with the softest balls and the smallest racquet, and once kids begin to get the concept, we'll graduate them very slowly. But remember, sometimes if you graduate them too quickly, their techniques will break down—then coaches, please digress a little bit, get a little closer to them and go back to the softer balls, the smaller racquets; and as soon as their technique is solid, they can go back again. I do this with some of the best students in the world.

STAYING ON THE BALL

As a tennis coach, you have to be able to adjust and move around, because staying in one place you don't see all the things that are happening. This format enables coaches to come up closer to the net and observe a lot more, rather than from the baseline hitting the ball to the student and not seeing what's going on with their swings, their grip and how they're reacting to the ball. This makes for a more satisfying experience for coaches as well as students.

AT FIRST I WAS SKEPTICAL

What am I saying today? "The USTA QuickStart Tennis play format has won me and the entire IMG-Bollettieri staff over." This format helps develop skills and court awareness in a bold new way. We not only endorse the QuickStart play format, we plan to incorporate it into our curriculum for use with our young players.

1 GETTING "HELP" AT COLORADOTENNIS.com:

Not to be biased, but our search features are infinitely simpler and more accurate than the USTA's TennisLink. Hit COLORADOTENNIS.com and use the "Helpful Links" drop-down menu. Click "Find a Tourney". You can search by tournament name, or division. You can also look for tournaments in progress, those open for registration and completed tournaments. And Finding the tournament site has never been easier. Click "Find a Court", type in the name of the facility and voila. It's like having an EASY BUTTON.

2 VERIFY ALL TOURNAMENT INFORMATION ONLINE

Players are encouraged to verify all tournament information online. The information provided in the 2010 Big Book is accurate at the time of publication, but is not complete. Get draw times, weather announcements, schedule changes, directions, etc. You will find other important information online as well, like what time the player party starts and what size t-shirt you can order. It is the players' responsibility to obtain and verify all match times. Check the event's online listing two days prior to the start of the event, or verify with tournament staff.

3 KEEP YOUR INFORMATION CURRENT WITH THE USTA

In addition to ensuring that you'll receive your Big Book and other vital Colorado Tennis publications, keeping the USTA up to date on your contact info is very helpful to tournament directors in case they need to reach you for any reason during an event (Rain Delay, Default, etc.)

4 CHECKING YOUR STANDING

You're not vain, you just want to see where you stand in your division. Just go to COLORADOTENNIS.com and use the "Helpful Links" menu to access division standings.

5 SEEDING/FORMATS

Seedings for Colorado events reflect the most current published Standing Lists. If Joe Smith is #1 in Boy's 16 singles, he will be seeded #1 in that event. Also, please note that a tournament director and/or committee can alter the schedule or scoring format due to inclement weather or size of the tournament.

6 CHECKING IN

Please plan to arrive at your tournament site at least 15 minutes prior to your first match. This can help in getting matches on earlier if courts are available and is very much appreciated by tournament staff.

7 WARMING UP ON TOURNAMENT DAY

Not many events boast open courts during the tournament, so any warm-up prior to a match should be done at a different location. Use the Court Locator at COLORADOTENNIS.com to find public courts near the site to warm-up prior to your match.

8 COME PREPARED WITH THE ESSENTIALS

Don't assume all sites have water on the courts. Come prepared with plenty of fresh water, a hat and sun-screen, especially for those hot summertime matches. Players of all levels should come prepared to every match with at least two freshly strung tennis racquets.

9 RESOLVING JUNIOR TEAM TENNIS/TOURNAMENT SCHEDULING CONFLICTS

Junior Team Tennis and tournament play are great companions, and young players are encouraged to do both. Any Junior Team Tennis players who discovers scheduling conflicts with a local tournament should contact the Tournament Director immediately. Tournament Directors are required to accommodate the player if the match falls on a Monday during the Junior Team Tennis league season.

10 2011 RULE CHANGE

A rule change to USTA Regulations (Table 10) now mandates a 3-minute rest period before a Match Tiebreak in lieu of a 3rd set being played (coaching now allowed as it is an authorized rest period). In a best two of three set match (third set played out), Table 10 also now mandates a 10-minute rest period for BG12-18 divisions between the second and third set.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMERS WANTED

Each year, USTA Colorado celebrates the outstanding efforts of players, benefactors, volunteers and organizations who have distinguished themselves through their on- and off-court performances, and their dedication and commitment to the sport of tennis.

Please help USTA Colorado recognize these outstanding performers at the 2012 Colorado Tennis Hall of Fame Gala. A list of awards and nomination forms are available at www.COLORADOTENNIS.com, and will be accepted through September 15, 2011.

THE 10

ADULTS

The 10 Things every adult tournament player should know

1 GETTING "HELP" AT COLORADOTENNIS.com:

Not to be biased, but our search features are infinitely simpler and more accurate than the USTA's TennisLink. Hit COLORADOTENNIS.com and use the "Helpful Links" drop-down menu. Click "Find a Tourney". You can search by tournament name, or division. You can also look for tournaments in progress, those open for registration and completed tournaments. And Finding the tournament site has never been easier. Click "Find a Court", type in the name of the facility and voila. It's like having an EASY BUTTON.

2 VERIFY ALL TOURNAMENT INFORMATION ONLINE

Players are encouraged to verify all tournament information online. The information provided in the 2010 Big Book is accurate at the time of publication, but is not complete. Get draw times, weather announcements, schedule changes, directions, etc. You will find other important information online as well, like what time the player party starts and what size t-shirt you can order. It is the players' responsibility to obtain and verify all match times. Check the event's online listing two days prior to the start of the event, or verify with tournament staff.

3 KEEP YOUR INFORMATION CURRENT WITH THE USTA

In addition to ensuring that you'll receive your Big Book and other vital Colorado Tennis publications, keeping the USTA up to date on your contact info is very helpful to tournament directors in case they need to reach you for any reason during an event (Rain Delay, Default, etc.)

4 CHECKING YOUR STANDING

You're not vain, you just want to see where you stand in your division. Just go to COLORADOTENNIS.com and use the "Helpful Links" menu to access division standings.

5 SEEDING/FORMATS

Seedings for Colorado events reflect the most current published Standing Lists. If Joe Smith is #1 in Men's 4.0 singles, he will be seeded #1 in that event. Also, please note that a tournament director and/or committee can alter the schedule or scoring format due to inclement weather or size of the tournament.

6 CHECKING IN

Please plan to arrive at your tournament site at least 15 minutes prior to your first match. This can help in getting matches on earlier if courts are available and is very much appreciated by tournament staff.

7 WARMING UP ON TOURNAMENT DAY

Not many events boast open courts during the tournament, so any warm-up prior to a match should be done at a different location. Use the Court Locator at COLORADOTENNIS.com to find public courts near the site to warm-up prior to your match.

8 COME PREPARED WITH THE ESSENTIALS

Don't assume all sites have water on the courts. Come prepared with plenty of fresh water, a hat and sunscreen, especially for those hot summertime matches. Players of all levels should come prepared to every match with at least two freshly strung tennis racquets.

9 HEY, THAT KID ISN'T OLD ENOUGH TO PLAY NTRP!

Any player who is 18 years-old, but will be turning 19 by December 31, 2011, is eligible to participate in Adult NTRP events. But there's a catch for 18s who want to register for an event: TennisLink is not set up to accommodate you, so you must contact the tournament director to register for the event. They will happily enter you into the draw.

10 BY THE BOOK

The USTA has recently announced several changes to the Code, USTA Rules & Regulations, etc. Players should keep a copy of the most recent Friend At Court with them, or know of any recent rule changes. There is a summary at the beginning of the 2011 Friend At Court which can act as a quick reference guide to players who want to be up to speed on the recent changes/additions. For details, go to USTASHOP.com.
